THE REAL ESTATE MARKET

Once again the South Bay has retained itself as one of the nation's strongest industrial markets. However, with the economic collapse, the past year has seen the first rent decline since 1993. Although I don't have a crystal ball I believe rents and sale prices will continue to fall over the next 12 months before stabilizing. The market is still relatively strong with a vacancy rate of 3.7%; well below the historic 9.5% average. The South Bay is still and will play a key role in the region's economic prosperity.

A few noteworthy industrial Torrance transactions include the following:
